

Indira Gandhi National Old Age Pension Scheme (Vayvandana Scheme)

Schemes Details

Department	Social Justice & Empowerment Department
Objective	The objective of the Indira Gandhi National Old Age Pension Scheme (IGNOAPS) is to provide financial assistance to elderly individuals who are below the poverty line (BPL), ensuring social security and dignified living in their old age. The scheme offers monthly pensions to senior citizens aged 60 years and above, helping them meet their basic needs.

Purpose	The purpose of the Indira Gandhi National Old Age Pension Scheme (IGNOAPS) is to provide financial support to elderly individuals from economically weaker sections, ensuring their livelihood security and well-being in old age. The scheme aims to reduce financial dependency and help senior citizens meet their basic daily needs with dignity
Benefits	Through this scheme, the beneficiary of 60 to 79 years will get Rs. Rs. 1000/- and beneficiary aged 80 or above Rs. 1250/- monthly allowance is paid.
Eligibility	The benefit of this scheme is given to senior citizens aged 60 years or above and family members enrolled in the poverty line list with a score of 0 to 20.
Documents Required	Age proof, income certificate (BPL proof), Aadhaar card, and residence proof.