Financial Assistance for Self Employed Labourers

Schemes Details

Department	Labour, Skill Development and Employment Department
Objective	The scheme objective Is to provide financial safety to the families of the self employed rural labourers as a form of social security.
Purpose	self-employed laborers is to provide economic support, promote entrepreneurship and improve livelihood opportunities These schemes aim to empower individuals in the informal sector by offering financial resourcesskill development and social security helping them start, sustain, or grow their businesses while contributing to their overall well-being and economic stability.
Benefits	INR 1 lakh social security cover to any self employed or rural laborer suffering from notified diseases
Eligibility	Any self employed rural labourer such as share cropper, mason etc. can avail the benefit of the scheme .
Documents Required	Aadhaar Card: For identity verification. Photograph: Recent passport-sized photo. Bank Account Details: Including account number, branch, and IFSC code. Income Proof: For certain schemes (e.g., self-declaration, income certificate). Business Registration/License: For certain business or micro-enterprise schemes. Business Plan/Project Report: For schemes like PMEGP or Stand-Up India. Proof of Age: Birth certificate or government-issued ID for age verification. Caste/Community Certificate: For SC/ST applicants under certain schemes. Address Proof: Utility bills, ration card, or government-issued document for address verification.