

Labour Accident Scheme

Schemes Details

Department	Labour, Skill Development and Employment Department
Objective	To provide financial assistance and compensation to workers or their families in case of workplace accidents, injury, disability, or death.
Purpose	To provide financial assistance and compensation to workers or their families in case of injury, disability, or death due to workplace accidents.
Benefits	Provides financial compensation, medical assistance, and disability or death benefits to workers injured in workplace accidents.
Eligibility	Eligibility Criteria for Labour Accident Scheme: 1. The worker must be registered under the Labour Department or relevant government scheme. 2. The accident must have occurred at the workplace or during work-related activities. 3. Both permanent and contractual workers may be eligible. 4. In case of death or disability, the dependent family members can claim benefits. 5. Required documents include an accident report, medical certificate, and worker's identity proof. Would you like information on the benefits or the application process?
Documents Required	Application form, accident report, medical certificate, employer's verification, disability/death certificate (if applicable), and identity/address proof.