

Mukhyamantri Matrushakti Yojana

Schemes Details

Department	Women & Child Development Department
Objective	Improve the nutritional status of the mother and child, To reduce the prevalence of preterm or low birth weight babies, Reduction in IMR and MMR
Purpose	The Mukhyamantri Matrushakti Yojana (MMY), launched by the Government of Gujarat, aims to enhance maternal and child health by providing nutritional support during the critical 1,000-day period—from pregnancy to the child's second birthday. The scheme seeks to reduce malnutrition, anemia, and infant mortality rates, thereby improving the well-being of mothers and their children.?
Benefits	Provide nutrition kit includes 1 Litre of Groundnut oil, 1 Kg Tuver Dal, & 2 Kg Chana
Eligibility	Women who are conceiving for the first time and mothers who give birth to their first child till the child completing 2 years of age.
Documents Required	Aadhaar Card Proof of pregnancy or childbirth (such as a medical certificate) Residence proof of Gujarat Ration card (if available) Mobile number