

Ganga Swarupa Baheno na Punahvasvat mate Arthik Sahay

Schemes Details

Department	Women & Child Development Department
Objective	The scheme aims to rehabilitate women who have been widowed and provide them with opportunity to provide for their own sustainable livelihood avenue
Purpose	(widow pension) scheme in Gujarat aims to provide financial support to widowed women, enhancing their economic independence and dignity. By offering a monthly pension of ₹1,250, the scheme seeks to alleviate the financial challenges faced by widows, promoting their social inclusion and well-being.
Benefits	Free training to widow women for livelihood enhancement along with basic materials free of cost.
Eligibility	The applicant must be: 1) Widow Women, 2) Between age of 18 and 50 years of age
Documents Required	Aadhaar Card – for identity verification. Ration Card – to establish residency and family details. Proof of Widowhood – such as the husband's death certificate. Income Certificate – issued by the local authority, indicating annual family income. Proof of Age – birth certificate, school leaving certificate, or a medical officer's certificate if other documents are unavailable. Residence Proof – domicile certificate or utility bill. Bank Account Details – a copy of the passbook or bank statement for direct pension transfer. Photograph – recent passport-sized photo of the applicant