

Jyoti Gramodyog Vikaks Yojana

Schemes Details

Department	Industries & Mines Department
Objective	Three phase uninterrupted electricity supply to all the villages of the state was the dream came true last year. Now to capitalize the benefits in favors of the rural ample, a scheme is required to establish village industries.The scheme is applicable to all New Village Industry projects set up in “rural area”. Any extension or renovation of existing unit will not be eligible for this facility.Three phase uninterrupted electricity supply to all the villages of the state was the dream came true last year. Now to capitalize the benefits in favors of the rural ample, a scheme is required to establish village industries.The scheme is applicable to all New Village Industry projects set up in “rural area”. Any extension or renovation of existing unit will not be eligible for this facility.
Purpose	to promote rural entrepreneurship by providing financial support and encouraging self-employment in rural areas, thereby boosting income levels and creating new job opportunities for unemployed youth.
Benefits	A loan of up to INR 25 lakh for small businesses in rural areas wih subsidy on interest
Eligibility	1) Individual artisans/enterpreneurs of age between 25 and 50 years with minimum education of 10th Standard Pass. The beneficiary must be presently working at home or in factory/unit of the proposed project or trained by recognized institution in the activity of the proposed project. 2) This scheme benefits can also be availed by Grade II active SHGs engged in production of goods at a small level
Documents Required	Aadhaar Card or Election Card:, Artisan Identity Card, Birth Certificate or School Leaving Certificate:, Proof of Business Location:, Quotation with TIN/VAT Number:, Two Passport-sized Photographs, Project Report:, Experience Certificate, Educational Qualification Certificate